ALLEGED BOMB PLOT

When They Accepted $2,000
Demanded They Were Arrested.

NEW YORK, November 12.—Alexander and Victor Goudos, editor and publisher, respectively, of the Bridgeport Daily News, were held for the grand jury in jail of $10,000 each today, after the charge of extorting $2,000 from Julius Peritz, president of the Trans-Atlantic Trust company of this city, was reduced to one of attempted extortion. This action followed their arraignment before a magistrate.

Peritz testified that the Goudos brothers called upon him and produced a plan, written in Hungarian, of a campaign to be made against the trust company. Peritz swore that he accepted the plan for $2,000 to suppress the campaign and that when he handed a check for that amount to one of the defendants their arrest followed.

One section of the plan as translated read:

"The money for the bomb plot was sent from Germany through the Trans-Atlantic Trust company."

Another was to the effect that "the bank is a medium for the foreign spy service and commits at least offenses against the neutrality and laws of the United States."

Still another declared: "The Trans-Atlantic Trust company represents here a policy of inducing immigrants to return home," and after outlining the policy said: "This policy is harmful to the United States."

Peritz denied that he knew of Fay or his alleged plot to blow up ships, insisted that his bank was not a medium for any spy service and

Sand Springs to Be Home of Big New Factory; Will Make Tractors

TYPE OF TRACTOR TO BE MADE AT SAND SPRINGS.
Contract has just been closed which insures for Sand Springs one of the best factory propositions which has so far invaded the southwest. The deal was made between Charles Page and the Farm Engineering company. This company is composed of A. J. Patch, mechanical engineer, and O. G. Patch, civil engineer, brothers.

Within the month work will be started on their first plant unit, a building of glass and steel 75 by 150 feet. The first production of the plant will be a tractor engine. Attachments for it will be made in a score or more of forms with the building of the other structures which will be added. Plans for the plant are now being drawn and its home will be a site consisting of acres.

The tractor which will be built at Sand Springs in this modern plant will be the outgrowth of 15 years of mechanical study and knowledge gained by its inventors in their long service with the Fairbanks-Morse and Westinghouse gas and electrical concerns. It will consume either oil or gasoline, weigh but 4,000 pounds, and at that weight pull four large plows as shown in the view. While the plant at Sand Springs is building, the company has contracted with several large companies to construct its tractor that orders may be filled. Its first product from the new plant will be in the early spring.

that it had received no money from Germany in furtherance of any plot. The key referred to is Robert Fay, claiming to be a lieutenant of the German army, who with four others is held on a charge of attempting to blow up munition ships.

TRY TO LAND OIL EXPERIMENT HERE

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—Communicating today to the corporation commission, Congressman Joe R. Thompson said that he would make every effort within his right to secure the establishment of a petroleum station, when it is said the government is to locate either in Oklahoma or California.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Herbert Lang, an explorer, sent to the Belgian Congo in 1909 by the American Museum of Natural History as the head of an expedition to gather for the museum a collection of animal and bird life of Africa, returned here today. Mr. Lang said that the expedition had gathered more than one hundred thousand specimens of animal and bird life as well as over six thousand specimens of bird life.

The expedition secured a representative group of the Okapi tiny deer, first reported as being in the Congo by Sir Harry Johnston in 1903 and a complete family group of the famed white rhinoceros, as well as eight hundred snakes of about fifty species.

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—All bids offered by E. W. Marland on oil and gas leases in Kay, Lincoln, Cotton, Stephens and Pawnee counties, aggregating about fifteen tracts, were rejected by the school land commission at a meeting this evening. Marland had offered a bonus of $13,200 on all the tracts, but withdrew his bid when at a former sitting of the board they failed to unanimously accept the bids.

The leases in question will be re-advertised, subject to some changes that are to be made in the contracts. It will be provided in the new contracts that at the end of five years the cost of drilling a well will be added to the value of the mineral as approved by the school land department.

MINERS' RHEUMATISM

is caused by impoverished blood and is aggravated by working in dampness and from lack of fresh air. It will not correct itself until the blood is purified, and the greatest physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion, because its medicinal nourishment quickly improves the quality of the blood to relieve the painful muscles and stiffened joints, while its wonderful oil-food strengthens the organs to expel the very acids which cause the trouble.

Scott's Emulsion is exactly what miners need to create rich, active blood, strengthen the throat and fortify the lungs against colds, pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption.

Scott's is always free from alcohol or drugs—but be careful to avoid substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Bluefield, N. J.

Arizona Board of Pardons Acts
Favorably For Two Men
Condemned to Die.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 12.—Because of their youth, the death sentences of Atha Leonard and John Tomlin, each aged about 26, convicted several months ago of murder, were commuted to life imprisonment late today by the state board of pardons. W. W. Kerneen, sentenced to be hanged November 19, was reprieved for four weeks in order that his sanity may be determined.

The board declined to act in the cases of William Patton, to be hanged November 26, and Ramon Villalobos, under sentence to die December 10. An appeal pending before the state supreme court has acted as a stay of execution for five Mexicans who were reprieved at the last moment last May through the intervention of the state department at Washington.

WILLIAMS HEARS NEW COUNTY KICKS

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—Governor Williams today heard evidence of those protesting against detaching about five townships from Creek county. The protests came from those interested in the movement to form a new county to be known as Shaffer county. The territory embraced in the townships in Creek county is a portion sought to be composed of the proposed new county. Governor Williams gave ten days for the representatives of Shaffer county, or those opposed to detaching the Creek county townships, to file briefs, and ten days following that for the other side to answer. The Shaffer county movement was started several years ago, but has until this time been unsuccessful.

SELF-DEFENSE IS HIS PLEA

Feared He Was Being Dragged to His Death, Witnesses Say.

Special to The World.
MALESTER, Nov. 12.—Alleged threats of Pomeroy Alley, the Indian man who was killed on the evening of February 20 last by Charles Webb, formed the basis of a self-defense plea in Webb's side of the case before the district court today. Both Alley and Louise Choate had threatened to kill Webb, witnesses said, and when Choate started a fight with him, Alley tried to drag him from the barber shop in which the killing occurred, the defendant believed he was being dragged to his death. Choate, witnesses declared, was waiting at the door with a knife in his hand. The defendant will take the stand Saturday morning.

WIRE TAPERS ARE CONVICTED.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—J. J. Flaherty and James Daniels, charged with obtaining $5,200 from George Roth of Lee Moines by a fake wire tapping scheme, were convicted by a jury in the Kansas City, Kan., circuit court late today. Sentence will be passed later.

MAJESTIC.

The Majestic offering for today, "Comrade John," is an exceptionally timely play in five acts, for it deals with a make-believe philosopher, founder of a fake religious cult. The story is by Samuel Merwin and was originally presented in New York on the speaking stage. At that time it created considerable stir among some of the ultra-fashionables who went in for bizarre beliefs. The play was a splendid success and ran for a whole season.

In the filmed version Ruth Roland and William Elliott play the leading roles. The photography and settings are beautiful and the acting is of the highest order. A breezy comedy in addition to the feature affords a well balanced entertainment.

Show New Haven's Monopoly Greed War Would Check All U. S. Exports

the transportation traffic of New England nevertheless existed. All of the defendants except Lewis Chase Lydard and Edward D. Robbins were recorded as present at the meeting at which the vote was taken and correspondence read into the record appeared to indicate that Lydard and Robbins were in contempt of the scheme.

The defense, on the other hand, plans to show that the contemplated line was a benefit to the people of New England and was proposed to be established in response to a demand for such service. A letter written by Chas. K. Mellen proposing to the chairman of the Merchants & Miners Co. that the New Haven "openly assume control as a majority stockholder" expressed the opinion that the suggested service probably would have to be run at a loss, but he felt that, on account of "the strong movement on foot in Boston" the interests of the New Haven might require it to assist in the proposition.

About Morse Failure.
The government attorneys later swung into what may prove one of the most interesting phases of the trial—the collapse of the Morse enterprises after the panic of 1907 and the transactions by which it is alleged Edward D. Robbins, general counsel of the New Haven, obtained possession of two of the Morse steamers, the Harward and the Yale, and had them transferred to the Pacific coast.

The story went little further today than a recital by letters, written to and by Mellen, of the fact that Morse early in 1908 offered the two vessels to the New Haven and that his offer was rejected.

McAdoo Favors Plan.
Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in a telegram urged that the government should provide speedily an adequate naval auxiliary in the form of a merchant marine.

"Profound economic changes will result from the world-wide war now raging," he said. "We must secure our economic as well as our physical safety. The utilization of a naval auxiliary merchant marine in time of peace for the expansion and protection of our foreign trade is of vital importance. The prosperity of the country depends absolutely upon the continued growth of our foreign commerce."

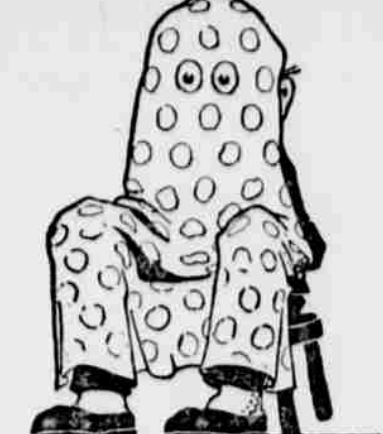

When Baby Comes.

Before baby comes there is a period when experienced mothers are glad to aid the expectant mothers. They urge the use of Mother's Friend, obtained at any drug store, because this safe, harmless external remedy is positively necessary since it brings relief in easing the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments involved, and unnecessary pain is avoided; thus it serves to ease the mind and has a beneficial effect on the nervous system. In many cases nausea, morning sickness and other distresses are avoided.

HUMAN SYSTEM NEEDS MINERAL

Vitazone Supplies Elements Which Modern Foods Fail to Provide.

Offentimes when a patient is weak, anemic, constipated and in need of a general toning up, a good physician will prescribe the grade bread, bran biscuits and foods which have not been robbed of their essential mineral elements.

Modern manufacture of flour, rice, sugar and other foods in striving for appearance and color, eliminate the most vital parts of the grain. The body needs these minerals in its work of building tissue and eliminating waste. The first effects of mineral starvation is noticeable in stomach troubles, indigestion, kidney and bladder disorders, etc.

Vitazone, the remarkable Alabama mineral discovery, contains intensified sulphate of iron, aluminum, calcium, magnesium, chloride, sodium, silica and free sulphuric acid. It is a powerful remedy for the above ailments, correcting organic diseases and building up good, red blood. Try a free drink at Quaker drug store. A teaspoonful in half a glass of water is a dose.
